ABSTRACT

Ďurčík V. Eco-philosophy and several eco-philosophical conceptions – Part I

Eco-philosophy formulates and explains philosophical and methodological resources, historical, axiological, ethical, social and economical aspects by means of its apparatus of concepts and categories. It deals with possibilities and searches for solutions from an ecological crisis (Henryk Skolimowski, Arne Naess, Murray Bookchin).

Key words: eco-philosophy, interdisciplinary approach, deep ecology, shallow ecology, holism, anthropocentrism, social ecology
